When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.

If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.

A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TO STANDARD.

London, 23rd The Queen will preside on Thursday at the first Privy Council held by Gladstone, who will lay before her the state of foreign affairs, the parliamentary situation and the Bills he means to lay before Parliament.

Mr. Herbert Gardner has been named President of the Farmers League of England.

Madrid, 23rd—The Mayor of this city has ordered the suspension of the Columbus Centenary fetes.

Tangier, 23rd—The negotiations with the Anghera insurgents have been broken off, and the Sultan has given orders to attack them until they submit unconditionally.

The news has caused a sensation here, as it is feared that the struggle will become more ferocious than before. It is announced from Fez that reinforcements of Imperial troops will shortly arrive here.

Rome, 23rd—The Pope has dismissed Cardinal Ruggieri, Papal Treasurer, who is accused of a defalcation of 20 millions of lire, and of which Monsignor Folchi was accused by the Italian and foreign press.

The news of Cardinal Ruggieri's guilt has caused a profound sensation, as he was considered by some as the probable successor of Leon XIII., and for this reason his fraud has created a greater sensation in the Vatican and in Catholic circles.

Bucharest, 23rd—Some cases of cholera have occurred in Galatz and other towns on the Russian frontier, but the epidemic is mild and is not spreading. Here the public health is good.

Lisbon, 23rd—The Miguelistas are agitating all over Portugal, but it is believed that they can do nothing, as they have no support from public opinion.

(Per Havas Agency)

Lisbon 23rd (evening)—The Portuguese Government is inclined to arrange with its Foreign Bondholders through the mediation of Foreign Powers, and will submit a Bill to the Cortes in January.

Rio, 23rd—Marshal Deodoro is dead.

(To the "Prensa".)

London, 22nd.—In Visp Valley, Switzerland, the intense heat is melting the glaciers, and the town of Tasch has been destroyed by the fall of enormous masses of ice. The torrents of water from the mountains have destroyed part of the Zermatt Railway, and travellers are now carried on mules.

The Radical Associations are getting up a joint protest against their exclusion from the new Cabinet.

Sir Lyon Playfair and Mr Cyril Fowler have been raised to the peerage.

Berlin, 22nd.—The heat in all parts of the Empire is terrible.

At Halle, while the 93rd Regiment was on the march, one soldier died and 40 fell out of the ranks, prostrated. During the manœuvres at Carlsruhe six grenadiers died and many others fainted. The papers are indignant at manœuvres being held in such weather.

San Sebastian, 22nd.—During the Columbus fetes the police arrested, by mistake, the U. States Chargé d'Affaires in Madrid. When the mistake was made clear the police officers were dismissed and ample satisfaction was given to the diplomatist.

Calcutta, 22nd.—There is general discontent at the apathy of the Government in the monetary crisis. It is thought there is still time to avert disaster by suspending the coinage of silver.

Berlin, 22nd.—The town of Sontra, near Cassel, has suffered from a great fire. A hundred and forty houses destroyed.

RAILWAYS IN ARGENTINA.

REPORT OF THE BOARD.

Under date 11th inst. Commissioners Villanueva, Stegmann and Terry publish an important report, recommending the Government to discourage any further construction of railways in the republic until the population increase very notably, on the grounds that there has been an over-development of this branch of enterprise, a point on which public opinion is almost unanimous. The report begins by shewing that the Republic has at present :—

	Miles
Railways working....	7,650
Concessions granted..	10,250

Taking merely the mileage of lines working, we find the proportion in various countries as follows :—

Miles per 10,000 population.

Argentina..	19	Russia.....	2
Uruguay.....	14	Italy	3
U. Kingdom	5	U. States..	26
France.....	5	Australia..	25
Germany ...	5	Canada	26

That the development in Argentina has been too rapid of late years appears on comparing the traffic returns of 1891 with 1887, viz. :

	1887.	1891.
Miles open..	4,290	7,300
Passengers..	7,975,000	10,820,000
Tons cargo..	3,434,000	4,621,000

Thus while the mileage was increased nearly 75 per cent the traffic increased only 35 per cent.

As a necessary consequence the earnings fell off tremendously, and the figures shewed as follows :—

	1887 £ stg.	1891 £ stg.
Capital	45,020,000	74,700,000
Gross receipts.	3,300,000	3,070,000
Expenses.....	1,830,000	2,120,000
Net proceeds..	1,470,000	950,000

Thus although in 14 years no less than 3,000 miles of new railways were opened the net earnings in 1891 were actually £520,000 less than in 1887. Comment on this fact is needless. The net proceeds on every £1,000 of capital was :—

	£
En 1887.....	33
" 1891.....	13

The report goes on to say that this shews most of our railways to be in a ruinous condition, and that any further competition would be still more disastrous. The profit on every £1,000 of railway capital (see the Dictionary of Statistics) compares with the same in Argentina thus :—

	£		£
Argentina	13	Australia	33
Uruguay..	14	France...	38
Canada....	17	G. Britain	41
Italy.....	25	Germany	51
U. States	31	India....	52

There is apparently no part of the world where railways have proved so bad an investment as in the River Plate.

We have not room to give the passages in the report relative to the railway crisis in the United States, where one line that had cost £8,000,000 sterling was sold for £100,000. The report is very ably drawn up.

THE AGRARIAN LEAGUE.

The first meeting of this new and important association, whose object we explained in our issue of Sunday, took place on Monday night in the rooms of the Argentine Rural Society, in Calle Cangallo. A number of leading estancieros were present, amongst others Messrs. Vicente Peluffo, Ernesto Quesada, P. M. Cárdenas, Mariano Demaria (jr.), Pedro O. Luro, Antonio Pirán, Miguel Hearne, Leonardo M. Rodriguez, Juan C. Molina, Adolfo Bullrich, Tomás Duggan, Jacinto Peralta Ramos, N. Cañas, Victorio Gonzalez, Manuel Vazquez, Adolfo J. Pueyrredon, Pedro J. Piñeiro, Francisco J. Piñeiro, Cárlos Salas, Agustin Justo, Juan M. Lavignolle, José Vidal, Vicente Vidal, José L. Vidal, Ricardo Newton, Tomás Torres Aguero and Celedonio Perera.

Mr. Carlos Guerrero, the active and energetic promoter of the League, opened proceedings with a speech in which he sketched an outline of the Association. He said that the conditions of the League had been submitted to the Argentine Rural Society for approval, as it was the object of the Committee, of which he, Mr. Baudrix and others were members, that the Rural Society should take the initiative in the proposed reforms. He was anxious to impress on his hearers that the new League was in no way to rival or hostilize the Rural Society. The blacksmith needed two hammers to forge the block of iron on his anvil, and this new league would be a sort of second hammer. The real point of difference between the two associations was in regard to politics. It was in the ground of politics that the new league intended to fight in order to ensure a good, sound government. The Rural Society had always maintained aloof from politics. This he considered a mistake.

Mr. Guerrero brought his speech to a close by enumerating the objects of the League, which we need not repeat since we enumerated them in our issue of Sunday.

Mr. Baudrix then read out a letter from the President of the Rural Society stating that, although he considered the formation of the League as an eminently patriotic move, he did not think the fusion of the two associations possible.

A long list of the names of the supporters of the League was than read out. The conditions of the League were then discussed and approved.

Finally Mr. Baudrix rose and delivered a brilliant speech. He traced in a masterly manner the deplorable condition of things in the province of Buenos Ayres and dwelt on the necessity of such an association as the Agrarian League. Such was the condition of the province that the man who was opposed to the Government had no other communication with the authorities than the payment of taxes.

He then traced in an equally masterly way the more urgent reforms needed to put things straight. Finally he said that the success of the League would be ensured by the immediate support of the estancieros of the province

The meeting was brought to a close by the appointment of the following provincial committee to draw up the statutes :—Messrs. Carlos Guerrero, Juan Carlos Molina, Juan Cañas, Antonio Piran, Pedro O. Luro, Carlos Salas, Ernesto Quesada and Adolfo Puyrredon.

THE THAMES MAILS.

London, 30th July.

The Times sums up the votes in the recent election as follows :—

	Home Rule.	Unionist.
England....	1,720,332	1,841,967
Wales.....	125,600	73,964
Scotland....	254,551	215,172
Ireland.....	308,898	78,618
Total....	2,409,381	2,209,721

This leaves a majority of 200,000 votes in favor of Home Rule.

Count Waldersee has emphatically denied that he took an important part in the recent endeavour to bring about a reconciliation between the Emperor and Prince Bismarck, and that he had been intriguing against Count Caprivi. He knew his duty to his Sovereign and his country too well to interfere in such matters. When at Kiel he was requested by the Tsar to go to Friedrichsruh to present his Majesty's felicitations to Prince Bismarck, and this mission was fulfilled without any reference being made to the question of a reconciliation. Prince Bismarck left for Vienna, and he had never seen him since.

Count Waldersee said that in Germany they did not regard the advent of a Gladstonian Administration to power in England very complacently. Personally he never could understand Mr. Gladstone's attitude towards Italy, and his sympathies were naturally with Lord Salisbury's ideas of a strong Italy, especially on the sea, in order to prevent the ascendency of France in the Mediterranean. Equally, the evacuation of Egypt would be a great mistake. He looked upon the occupation of that country by England as of more importance than the possession even of Constantinople.

Thousands of visitors took part in the demonstration in honour of Prince Bismarck at Kissingen on Sunday. In reply to an address the ex-Chancellor said that his friends advised silence, but he would not allow his mouth to be closed. The ex-Chancellor concluded by joining in a 'Hoch' for the Kaiser and the Empire, for the Reichstag and the Federal Council

The ruins of St. Cloud were knocked down on Monday to a Paris builder for 3,325f. They are to be cleared away within four months, and if any coins or jewelry are found the State is to be the owner. The inhabitants are not pleased at the removal of ruins which attracted visitors, nor are antiquaries content at the disappearance of a building associated with the assassination of Henri IV., the visit of Peter the Great, Bonaparte's 'coup d'etat' of the 18th Brumaire and his marriage with Marie Louise. The Republic cares little for historical associations.

A public meeting was held at Bombay on Saturday in honour of the election of Mr. Naoroji to Parliament. The speakers were chiefly natives, but some Europeans also took part. Great enthusiasm prevailed, and resolutions were passed congratulating the new member, thanking the electors of Central Finsbury for their action, and starting a subscription for the election expenses.

Afghan affairs remain 'in statu quo.' The Ameer's reply to the second letter of the Indian Government regarding Bajaur is not such as to promise a speedy solution of this phase of existing difficulties.

The Hazara rebellion is assuming more formidable proportions, so far as can be judged from the vague reports which have reached India. The Afghan generals are displaying extraordinary uncompetence. Last week they allowed two convoys to fall victims to cleverly-planned ambuscades, and the result is that the rebels are now well supplied with what they formerly most wanted—Snider rifles and ammunition.

Mr. Gladstone, in speaking on his majority the other day, said : — Do not be discouraged because our nominal majority in the House of Commons is not a very large one. It is between 40 and 50. If we had economised our resources at Perth and elsewhere it might have been better. It will comfort you to know that I have sat in 25 Parliaments, and in five I have seen Liberal Governments in office which have done a great deal of work for the country with not such a majority as is now returned to support Liberal principles.

The Comte de Paris, in thanking the Royalists who went to Folkestone to assure the exiled Prince that they were still as attached as ever to the cause of the Monarchy in France, said:—I am deeply moved at the sentiments you express to me. It is one of the numerous proofs of devotedness and fidelity I have received within the last few months, and which have been a consolation to me in my exile. Amidst the difficulties with which they are now beset, that fidelity of the Monarchists to their political faith is an honour to them, and it will one day constitute their claim to the confidence of the country.

The failure of Sir Ewan Smith's Mission to Fez is by some ascribed to the (Bateman Legacy) clause by which Tangier was to have a new Water Supply. This, coming so soon after the trouble about the Mogador concession, so much enraged the mob that they attacked the embassy, beat the servants and pulled down the flag.

On July 5 the Sultan issued final orders that the treaty concluded between the British Minister and His Majesty, after eight weeks' negotiations, should be signed the next day. This, however, was not done, and on July 16, for some unaccountable reason, the Sultan refused to negotiate any treaty at all except one drawn on his own lines, and which he offered Sir Charles a bribe of £30,000 to sign. The inevitable result has been that the British Minister has withdrawn the mission. It is now known that the British Minister was supported by the representatives of Germany, Austria, Spain, Italy, and Belgium, and the action of the Moorish Government is attributed to French intrigue.

The trouble in Morocco served to bring out in bold relief the pluck of Englishwomen. At six o'clock on the afternoon of July 6, when the hostile demonstration was at its height, and when Bushta El Bagdadi and his divan fondly flattered themselves that the British Minister was trembling in his shoes, and his followers were only too anxious to leave the Holy City, Lady Euan-Smith could have been seen placidly photographing the "angry knots of rioters" ouside and inside the mission garden, and Miss Kerisson, her niece, was sturdily writing out a formal application to Sir Charles that in case the mission was attacked she should be allotted a repeating rifle.

The proposal to light Rome with electricity generated by the Falls of Tivoli has at last been carried into effect. Six turbines of 2,000-horse power have been erected, which are capable of driving dynamos generating currents ample not only for lighting up the streets and public buildings, but, at a small additional cost, admitting of being so increased as to provide illumination for private dwellings also. These currents are carried across the Campagna for 15 miles, and transformed into currents of lower pressure, at a loss, it is said, of only 20 per cent of the initial force.

The Ministerial crisis in Norway has come to an end. The members of the Left and Right held a meeting on July 26, when it was decided to bring forward a motion in the Storthing in favour of presenting the following address to the members of M. Steen's Cabinet:—"As the welfare of the country demands the discontinuance of the present situation, M. Steen's Ministry is requested to remain in office, the settlement of the Consulate question being deferred sine die." The address was unanimously adopted by the Storthing without discussion. This solution has been accepted by the King.

Colonel Frey, the Swiss Minister of War, has made a very clear and straightforward statement, in the course of which he says that Switzerland, from her position, can have no political allies. Her international relations are laid down for her by the treaties of 1815. No one Power can reproach her with having departed from her strictly neutral position; but in the event of her frontier being violated, she is not only bound, but willing and able, to protect her neutrality, and is therefore debarred from joining in any offensive military action on the part of her neighbours. The Swiss Army is a real substantial fact, and does not merely exist on paper. At two days' notice the Swiss Government is in a position to mobilise 200,000 men, and with a very short delay 250,000 more. This force of 450,000 trained soldiers have the natural fortress of the Alps as a redult, and all the passes are fortified so as to deny access to any hostile army, whether moving up from Austria, Italy, Germany, or France.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

REBELLION OF THE CLASSES.

July, 19th.

A wretched July day. The rain patters on the big windows and one would not object to see the redness of fire in the grates. Now and again there is a click, click, click, and a gain or loss is read out, but practically the elections are done with, and to-morrow we shall get rid of black boards and know if the Gladstonian majority is precisely 40 or 45, or what? At this moment it is 40. It matters little. The excitement is now of another kind and will increase as the 4th August approaches. The Unionists do not take kindly to their defeat which they attribute to the votes of the illiterate Irish of the scum of the East-enders in London, and of chawbacons in the agricultural districts who have been corrupted by Fabian vans. Lord Salisbury, who advised the Ulster men to rebel and sharpen their knives, now gives the same advice to the classes, from the highest in the land down to the proprietors of weekly illustrated newspapers and retired costermongers. His lordship has been dinning with Her Majesty the Queen at Windsor. The Lord Chamberlain as well as the Duke of Devonshire and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain were also amongst the guests at the royal castle. On Lord Salisbury's return from Windsor, Mr. Balfour went over to Hatfield and the result of the confabulation is announced by the Press Association to be that the premier will not resign but meet parliament on 4th August next. This looks so like open conspiracy that according to the London Press Exchange doubts are freely expressed in several quarters whether Her Majesty will send for Mr. Gladstone in case of a vote adverse to the ministry. It is said she will be advised to send for Lord Hartington who will endeavor to form a coalition ministry. Part of this gossip is that Mr. Chamberlain has decided to sit on the same side of the House as the Home Rule Liberals. If Mr. Gladstone should enter office, Mr. Chamberlain will take the corner seat on the second Government bench above the gangway, formerly occupied by Lord Randolph Churchill. It is evident from this club tittle tattle, that Mr Chamberlain is biding his time with the idea of heading a non-unionist Radical administration. All so far points to individual ambitions but the real contest is to move between the classes and the masses. Mr. Chamberlain by his ability and known views has a right to lead the latter and will lead them perhaps some day. His temper and anti-Home Rule policy have at present turned him from his natural course which was to outbid Mr. Gladstone in popular measures. According to Mr. Herbert Gladstone's recent speech his father seems inclined now to outbid Mr. Chamberlain and disestablish churches, extend the Franchise and reform electoral procedure. This remains to be seen. Meanwhile the tendencies of the recent elections are alarming the classes who are huddling together more in fear of the Labour Party than of Home Rule, about which the English know nothing and care nothing as Mr. Gladstone himself has at last discovered. The political animosities and class hatreds which are beginning to surge around us are plainly if amusingly disclosed in certain of the illustrated and society papers. In Black and White, to its credit, there is an excellent engraving of the exterior of the National Liberal Club as it appeared in the height of the election fever last week, when on one of these exquisitely clear and calm moonlight nights we were then favoured with, the club was a blaze of light and flashing the results of the elections to the crowd in the streets as I have described in a previous letter. The Daily Graphic gives representations of different London club halls and smoking rooms and amongst others the smoking room of the National Liberal Club. The picture is not flattering, but it is more or less like the beautiful room disguised as it is at present with screens and hustings for electioneering purposes. It was reserved for the paper that old Ingram founded, the Illustrated London News, to degrade art and its own high mission to the level of a political caricaturist; and to expose by the hands of its own artists the depth of affected fastidiousness, to which a second generation of successful tradesmen can and generally do ascend. In the Illustrated News the smoking-room of the National Liberal Club, one of the architectural sights of London, is made to resemble some third-rate tavern frequented by the employés of newspapers in the purlieus of the East end of the Strand near the church of St. Clement Danes. The members of the National Liberal Club are, in the picture given by the Illustrated London News, generally represented as dark vulgar looking aliens one might meet in Whitechapel or Leicester Square. I say generally, because the wretched picture contains two portraits of well-known members of the Club who defied the malice of the artist. That this is a faithful though perhaps too favourably and delicately drawn description of the picture, and its gentlemanly intention is proved by an indirect allusion to it in Mr. Edmund Yate's paper, the World. That gentleman, of whose aristocratic antecedents I know nothing except from my recollection of old newspaper amenities, has written, or permitted to be written, in his paper the following pleasant paragraph : — "The personal appearance and general 'get up' of the members of the National Liberal Club as depicted in the illustrated journals this week do not, I think, inspire one with a burning desire for affiliation with that select and distinguished body If gentlemen in society, like Mr. Yates, and if picture papers patronized by society, are going to set such examples of political malignity, they must remember that gentlemen who are not in society and are given to throwing "arf bricks," may retaliate as the strife grows more acute, and may even utilise "fin de siecle" lanternes, which the lighting companies have made conveniently lofty and placed in the middle of our streets. So far, the proprietors of the Illustrated London News and the World have only emphasized the social peculiarities of an interesting part of the English community which, from a voting point of view, possesses considerable importance to Lord Salisbury, and, from a social point of view, who, like the Chief of the Police in the "Red Lamps," can dangle at his tail something attractive to waiting-maids and their followers.

The political situation in general is well epitomised by Mr. Sexton, speaking at Listowel yesterday. He said :—"The Irish party hold the balance of power, and stand between the two parties. Lord Salisbury had called them Hottentots. They would repay that insult, and in a few weeks, unless he accepted the inevitable, they would expel him from power."

You observe it is not safe just now to call people Hottentots, to paint them as Hottentots, or to write Hottentotish paragraphs in Society papers. Mr. Sexton speaks for Ireland and Home Rule, but there are bigger questions to settle with Lord Salisbury and his following of waiting-maids and suburban ladies and gentlemen of the first and second generations who are ultra-fastidious. Some of them have excited the anger of their own Church. Dr. Sinclair, the Archdeacon of London, preaching at St. Pauls last Sunday, reminded the smart people that there was no difference between common gambling and gambling on the stock exchange. He had known ladies in society, he said, who had prayed fervently to Almighty God that their little speculations might realise 30 per cent. These are they who rebel against the Liberal majority.

Connie Gilchrist—or better to say, Miss Constance Macdonald Gilchrist, was married this morning to a Scottish peer, the Earl of Orkney. The Earl is only twenty five and handsome. The Duke of Beaufort gave the bride away. The ceremony was very simple. The marriage was solemnized at All Souls, Langton Place. The bride wore a magnificent dress of pale blue bengaline with ruche of the same material round the skirt. The bodice was of the same material with ruff and rollarete of lace, and puffed sleeves of reseda velvet. Her straw hat was ornamented with reseda velvet, bows and pale pink roses. The bride's only ornament was a massive diamond brooch. The newly married pair have taken residence at Leighton Buzzard, where they will shortly go to reside. The Scottish Team has won the Elcho sheild at Bixley by 4 points over the English score. The firing was unprecedented. People are glad the Scots have won, as in this particular contest they have been often unfortunate.

Mr. Thomas Cook, the excursionist agent, was stricken dead last night with paralysis at Leicester. He was over eighty years of age.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

That invaluable provincial exchange which has supplied us with so much useful information in regard to the progress of the principal towns and districts of the Queen province, gives the following in reference to 25 de Mayo. The district covers an area of 241 squares leagues of which 125,000 acres are to be devoted to agriculture. 25 de Mayo is therefore one of the largest districts in the province of B. Ayres. It possesses many fine estancias, amongst others we may mention that of Messrs. George and Henry Keen, who export live-cattle to Europe, and who obtained a gold-medal at the last Paris International Exhibition. The population of the district is close on 19,000 souls, while that of the town is 4,000. There are two millions of sheep in the district : the number of horned cattle is not officially known but it must be considerable. There are several strong commercial firms in the town. The branch of the Provincial Bank is rapidly regaining its former condition of usefulness and prosperity. The town and district are destined to make great head-way because the affairs of the place are in the hands of energetic and competent men. The schools are well kept and largely attended. Of course 25 de Mayo has felt the crisis, as every town in the province has.

Telegrams received from Villaguay yesterday state that in consequence of the arbitrary imprisonment of Mr. William Norman, several British residents have asked the British vice-consul in Paraná to interfere and procure his release. This is beginning to look serious. The Villaguay Municipality is the most unruly body in the entire country, but so long as they limit their unruly tendencies to making the Intendente's life a burthen to him, there is little to be said. It is the natural fate of a Mayor to be turned out of office. But to attack a British subject, an honest hardworking resident and to imprison him on some trivial pretext—this is overstepping the limits.

Our Santa Fé exchanges state that the news of President Pellegrini's resignation caused such tremendous excitement up there that the Governor in his anxiety to ascertain the truth of the report, packed up his tooth brush and bolted for Buenos Ayres. We believe the news had the same effect on the Governor of Entre-Rios.

THE ARGENTINE VAQUEROS.

London.

Mr. Editor.

There is probably no nation so unpopular in London at the present moment as the Argentine ; but, strange as it may appear, it has been reserved for 9 gaucho peones to mitigate to a great extent this feeling.

The financiers of the republic are undergoing a comparison with the unsophisticated camp peon, and the verdict is very much in favour of the latter. You will have seen in all the English papers most favorable accounts of their doings, how they had performed before the Queen and been made lions of generally, so I will not trouble you with a description of their performance. Passing their tents a few days ago, I was interested and amused to see an ex-secretary of state and the premier viscount of England with several fair ladies sucking maté with them, apparently upon the most intimate terms, whilst one of the 'peones' played the guitar; and I overheard one of the ladies remark that their manners were so perfect she could not believe that they were mere uneducated cowboys. Several Argentines now in London have taken them in hand and have acted as interpreters between them and Colonel Cody. To these, amongst whom I may mention Messrs. Martinez, Kenyon, and Gibson, great credit is due.

I hear that Buffalo Bill is extremely pleased with them and hopes to induce them to renew their six months' contract so as to attend the Chicago exhibition.

WANT EMPLOYMENT.

August 20th.

We have on the Farm Colony at Lujan a good Irish "matrimonio" with two sons 17 and 19 years of age, and a little girl of 9. The husband with good agricultural experience, and the wife can cook ; also a first class capable farm hand.

I shall be glad if you will help us to get them work.

During the last month over 300 people have slept in our Night Refuge, and a large number has passed through our Farm Colony to situations we have found for them.

A. de Barrits.

CONGRESS.

THE SENATE.

The Upper House met in secret sitting at 3 p.m. and began public business at 4. General Roca in the Chair.

A message from the Executive was read in reference to establishing a Lloyd's for the coasting trade.

The Deputies sent a message announcing the rejection of the reforms made by the Senate in the Lotteries Bill.

The Committee of Interior reported on the Argentine Pavilion contract with Sr. Morra.

The loan of $300,000 to the Mendoza Municipality for water works was voted 'sobre tablas'.

As regards the Lotteries Bill, the House resolved to insist on its previous sanction.

In the secret sitting the appointments of Don Vicente Quesada as Minister to Spain and Don Nicolas Calvo to the United States were approved.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The weather and politics were both better yesterday, and a less hysterical feeling prevailed in high political circles. The principal news of the day was from Brazil, where ex-President Marshal Deodoro has "joined the majority."

The mails for Europe to-day close at 3 p. m. at the General Post Office.

There was a fire in Admiral Brown Street yesterday and a lot of wooden shanties and sheebangs, including a lavadero of the same material, were burned up like matchwood.

The numerous friends of Mr. Charles G. Stuart will be sorry to read the announcement of his death in our obituary column.

Look out for Dr. Pilgrim's lecture on Modern Civilization before the English Literary Society to-night. It will be a treat.

Births 80, Weddings 5, and Deaths 28 yesterday.

There was a well founded rumour yesterday that Dr. M. Quintana will be the future Minister of the Interior, Dr. Plaza of Finance, Dr. Gomez of Education and Dr. Victorica of War.

There will be a general meeting of The Rovers' Polo Club at the Hotel Universo, Quilmes, this evening, the 24th inst. at 8.30 p.m., and every member is requested to attend if he possibly can, as the business to be transacted is very important, being in connection with the amalgamation with the Quilmes Athletic Club. Any member not having paid his subscription for the current six months will not be allowed to vote.

The burglar fraternity went for the Peruvian Consul Mr. Samanes yesterday to the rather unpleasant extent of $10,000 in beautiful works of art. No trace of the rascals.

Madame Tetrazzini, whose recent adventures have considerably amused the theatre-going public, applied for a divorce from her husband the other day. Before the judge could put on his specs, she eloped, and is now "non est inventus." Can all this scandal be a clever advertizement? It looks rather like it.

There was an immense crowd of distinguished people to see M. Rouvier off by the Congo. The Italian, Portuguese, Spanish, Austrian, United States and Russian Ministers were there to bid their popular colleague farewell: many ladies were amongst the distinguished party, and Madame Rouvier was presented with two beautiful farewell bouquets.

To-morrow (Thursday) evening, the Scotch Church Young Men's Society hold another of their monthly Musical and Social Evenings. Proceedings will commence at 8 o'clock.

The River Plate Meat Supply Company is going ahead like the electrically moved railway train of the near future —200 miles an hour. Customers are increasing every hour, and the English butcher goes to bed every night done up from over work. The sirloins, haunches and saddles astonish the native cooks in every household; and as for the mutton chops, they make the happy eater weep for joy: a butcher's boy who was shown one in an English house yesterday morning, said "that is not mutton ; it is veal ; no one ever saw a 'costilla de carnero" of that size "

We were led into a slight error yesterday, in saying that Mr. Fox, Accountant of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway, would leave in the R. M. S. Thames ; he goes to Montevideo to-night, to catch the Pacific steamer Lusitania for Europe.

Another slip we are asked to correct is that the B. A. team won the Football match on Sunday by two goals to one ; not "a goal to one."

A London paper reports as follows on the enthusiastic reception which Count MacMahon and his bride received in Ireland last month :—The son of Marshall MacMahon, and the Countess MacMahon, have arrived at Queenstown on their bridal tour. The other evening the band of the King's Light Infantry played the Marseillaise opposite their hotel, and on July 2 the Town Commissioners passed a resolution giving a cordial welcome to the "son of the most distinguished scion of the Irish race now living" and his Countess, and wishing them "all the happiness that the old Irish nation can accord to such a distinguished Irish family as that represented by the noble house of MacMahon."

The same paper alludes to Lord Salisbury's vigorous action in defence of British-life and property in Chili, an action which he might, have extended to this side of the Andes on numerous occasions, but did not. Our contemporary says :—"While not feeling disposed in any way to adopt the bouncing system with a State which already for the moment seemed to have had the life bounced out of her, Lord Salisbury took a severely steady course in regard to the murders of British subjects in Chili lately. The Santiago authorities appear to have thought in first place that a simple explanation about nomadic gauchos roaming the country after the war would cover the case, but Lord Salisbury was not to be appeased in this way. The matter is not yet settled, but a report on the present position is daily expected from the British representative in the Chilian capital. The idea in Downing Street is that the Chilian Government must be fully impressed with its responsibility in the matter."

There was a crowd in front of Olmi's mart all day yesterday gazing at the Imperial and regal furniture he offers for sale to-night. We elbowed our way in and found the blaze of gold, red and white velvet, silver plate, shining crystal, reflection from Venetian mirrors and the general flotsam and jetsam of the crisis in high life almost too much for our eyes. The dozens of gas chandeliers for sale are equally striking, and most, of them are fit for Windsor Castle There are ten splendid pianos to be hammered away. The sale comes off to-night.

We beg to thank Messrs. Galli Brothers for late English papers.

The Promenade Concert in the Opera House on Monday night was a magnificent affair. All the wealth, beauty and fashion of Porteño society were there. President Pellegrini, his Ministers, the Diplomatic Corps, Senators, Deputies etc. etc. mingled with the gay throng. The programme of music was admirable, and excellently performed. The Committee beg us to express their regret that many people received their invitations at the last moment, owing to the negligence of the man entrusted with them.

The [illegible] of bad example. The North American horse has taken to chewing tobacco, like his master :—"A Higganum (Conn.) pedlar has a horse which chews tobacco and likes it, says a truthful scribe. Nothing but fine cut suits his palate, and he has an ounce every morning for an after-breakfast cud. For 16 years master and horse have been each other's sole companions, and he learned to chew as colt, when steep hills made him halt, and a chew was given to start him."

We have to return our best thanks to Capt. Ferguson, R. Belgian mail-steamer Mozart, for files of English papers.

The Fire Fiend has always had a fancy for the West Coast, why we are unable to say. We reported yesterday a fire in Callao that caused the loss of 400,000 soles. On Sunday night there was another terrific blaze in the same city which cost 250,000 soles. The destruction would have been much greater but for the heroic efforts of the officers and blue jackets of H.M.S. Garnet, who blew down walls and houses with gun-cotton and thus cut short the fire.

Hear what a hom paper says of dear old Rosario :—"Rosario, the Chicago of the Plate country, seems to have gone ahead a trifle too rapidly in some ways of late years. Not so long ago Rosario was a comparatively humble place, with no great amount of ambition. Now it is a large town—or city—notable for its fine buildings, its excellent streets, and its rail, tram, electric light, water, and gas services. But that interest on the municipal debt has been allowed to get into default, which circumstance takes all the bright colour out of the picture." "En todas partes se cuecen habas." A free translation of this old Spanish saying is "Bateman Legacies are to be found everywhere, "cooked" and to be "cooked." We see by the papers to hand that one of the clauses in the Treaty which the Sultan of Morocco refused to sign provided for "a proper water supply for Tangier!" Oh! water, water, what queer things are done in thy name at the end of this so-called wonderful century.

Referring to a supplement with portraits of all the handsomest women in the capital of Chile, published by the Chilian Times, a North American contemporary loses his head and heart as follows :—"This supplement, printed on fine book-paper, contains heliograph copies of about three hundred photographs of Chilian ladies. It would take Lord Byron in his happiest mood when warmed by a bottle of gin to do anything like justice to this bevy of beauties. Prose-talk of midnight tresses and oriental eyes, of glowing bust and snowy arms avails nothing. These matchless women.

"Walk in beauty, like the night
Of cloudless climes and starry skies,
And all there is of dark and bright
Meet in the splendour of their hair and eyes."

"Gazing upon the group of faces that crowd the pages of the supplement like angels on a porch of paradise is very much like gazing on an aurora borealis : one does not know where he sees the brightest attraction nor in which direction to look longest. The only wonder is how men who have such women as these to please them in their hours of ease could ever go to war or ever go to work. Perhaps the supplement was issued for the purpose of convincing Uncle Sam that it would be wicked to make war with Chile, or perhaps to inform our warlike young men that there are batteries of charms in Santiago and Valparaiso, against which martial valour would av

ON 'CHANGE.

Tuesday, Aug. 23, 1892.

Now that the conflict between the National Executive and Congress is over, the market breathes more freely and the great campaign of dealers operating for a fall, interrupt for a few days, continues in full blast. It is well known that the majority of dealers are speculating for a fall in gold at the end of the year; this very speculation will defeat its own ends. Ten thousand ounces changed hands this morning: the price opened at $53.50, rose to $53 60, fell to $53.30, and closed at $53.40, say 228.11½ premium. Sovereigns opened and closed at $16.63, say 2291½ premium. The market closed lower than yesterday but ruled steady.

Patriotic Bonds were weak; they opened at 71.70 and closed heavy at 71.90. Internal Bonds were very dull and weak; the closing prices were 67.70 for cash, 67.80 for end of month, and 68.20 for end of September. There was a great spurt in Catalinas shares; over ten thousand were sold, prices closing at 10.90 for cash, 11 for the end of the month, and 11.10 for the end of September. Shares of the Argentine Paper Factory changed hands at 81 and of the Banco Agricola Comercial at 16. Obligaciones of the Banco del Constructor closed at 1.40. Municipal Consols fell to 39¼. Spanish Bank shares were firm at 106. La Plata Cedulas improved and closed hard at 29.20 all round.

Exchange is at a stand-still. Discounts continue very easy.

Another new canal project has been laid before Congress by Dr. Florencio Garrigos and Company who ask for no guarantee or assistance but merely the right to construct a canal from the outer roads to the Maldonado river; to canalise that river and continue the canal to Campana. The object of this canal is to facilitate navigation by eliminating the difficult Nueve Vueltas at the mouth of the Parana. The canal is to be 92 kilometres in length and to be 100 metres wide from the outer roads to Maldonado, 46 metres from Maldonado to Campana, depth 21 fect. The concessionaires to have the right to collect tolls on all vessels navigating the canal, according to tariff approved by Government. The project has been sent to the committee of Public Works and we suppose we shall hear more of il later on. The coastwise traffic in the Parana is doubtless very large, but we very much doubt if it is sufficient to cover the expense of this canal, the estimated cost of which is not mentioned in the project.

Letters received yesterday from Chubut, dated July 12th, state that they have had two very heavy falls of snow and several parties with sheep from the Colorado and Bahia Blanca have arrived. Our correspondent says: "It is wonderful to think of the crops they raise here in Chubut and the many disadvantages they have. The people are at present very busy in making a big ditch which will enable them to sow as much wheat again as they generally sow. They were all very much surprised when we arrived with over 5,000 sheep without the loss of a single lamb and with a cart. Some of the people who have been over the track asked us how we managed it as it is the biggest cart that ever came into Chubut from the Rio Negro. I am at present stopping with Mr. Thomas who introduced me to the head men of the place, also to the merchants, which has enabled me to get along so far. I purpose driving the sheep to a place called "Yelsyn" where I shall shear them. We crossed over 60 leagues in the "travesia" and never left a single sheep on the road, on the contrary. We counted our sheep yesterday, they are fat and strong and are lambing, but I fear for the lambs owing to the severe frost and snow; we had pretty fair weather the whole time and our longest march without water was 3 days."

Advices from Ayacucho are unfavorable. It seems a disease has broken out among the sheep causing great losses among the flocks. Every means to cure and prevent it has been adopted by the estancieros but all amounting to nothing. Mr. Francisco L. Schaffernorth has taken charge of the Banco de la Provincia in place of Mr. Lorenzo Dejean, who has gone to take charge of the Bank in San Fernando. The loss of Mr. Dejean is greatly felt there, having obtained great popularity. Cattle and camps are in good condition. It has been raining for several days.

Mr. Nicolas Bouwer who has arrived down from Rosario with Dr. Lucio V. Lopez was welcomed on Change, also Mr. T. D. Peters who has arrived baek from England in the "Thames" after a lengthened sojourn in Europe.

Capt. Borghini has received a letter from Lord Salisbury and a gold watch for his services to the shipwrecked crew of the British Barque Crown of Italy.

The British steamer County Down from Buenos Aires to England has put into Bahia to repair her machinery and to coal.

Telegrams from the Chief of Police of Rio Janeiro advise that some robbers who broke into a jeweller shop stealing 40,000$ gold have escaped in a vessel bound for the River Plate.

Last Saturday was a dull day in Montevideo, not a single arrival from Buenos Ayres, or from Ultramar, or from the rivers. There have been days when, owing to fog and bad weather, vessels could not enter and had to remain outside; but, on the day in question, the day was unusually fine, and not a single ship entered. This speaks for the declining fortunes of the sister city.

The meeting of the creditors of the English Bank of Montevideo will, now that the Moratorium is passed, be held, and the fees of the liquidators, which were 1,200 dollars gold per month, will be reduced. It is certainly about time, and the Montevidean creditors have every right to complain of the payment of such enormous fees.

The sale of 3,280 squares of land in the Department of the Rio Negro, Banda Oriental, belonging to Mrs. Garcia Zuñiga is reported for the price of $23,500[m/n] gold.

The following important sale of bloodstock is reported:—

"Indien, Percheron stallion for $4,000; Percheron mares at 1,400 each; Percheron colts and fillies at 850 each; Holland mares, imported at 1,200 each; Holland colts at 450; Clydesdale colts at 300 do; total sales $31,700[m/n]."

The London papers publish the following:—

The following Circular was issued on Monday by the Directors of the new English Bank of the River Plate to those creditors of the old Bank who had not replied to the previous Circular of 18th June on the same subject:—

"The board will be glad to have your decision—whatever it may be—regarding the arrangement suggested in the circular of the 18th June. The object of the arrangement is solely to enable the company at once to recommence business instead of waiting until July, 1893, and not in any way to delay payment to the creditors. The larger the deposits may be the better, but it is essential creditors should assent to deposit at least one-half of the sum it is proposed immediately to pay them, otherwise the arrangement cannot be completed. The half—for which the cash would be retained by them—will amount to precisely the same sum as the first instalment now payable on Sept. 30, and to those creditors who deposit the other half, the only difference will be that they will hold for the second instalment a 'deposit receipt' instead of a 'promissory note' for the amount. If so large an amount be deposited as to accumulate more cash than is necessary, it must be distributed in part payment of the promissory notes, due ten years hence, in accordance with the scheme which provides that 'the board shall pay the same by such instalments as the realised liquid assets of the company will in their judgment, from time to time, admit of, due regard being had to the proper conduct of the business of the company.' The directors will thank you to intimate your determination before the end of this month, because if the deposits be sufficient—it is intended, about the middle of August, to pay the instalments with the interest due on the 30th Sept., so that all the new securities, both 'deposit receipts' and 'promissory notes,' may carry interest from the 1st Oct., on which day the directors hope—by the assistance of the creditors in the manner suggested—to reopen the doors of the bank for safe business, and to earn an income sufficient not only to pay current expenses, but also to provide at least some portion of the interest on the debt, which otherwise must continue to be paid out of the principal money."

There seems to have been a great row in London about the Entre-Rios state bonds issued in the years 1886 and 1888 caused by some very adverse rumours from the River Plate published in one of the London papers. On the contradiction, however, of these rumours prices which had fallen to 32 came back to 35 and they are now paying away in London a new Entreriano 6% funding bond which is paid instead of cash for the coupons of the Entreriano bonds. As yet only a small amount has been paid out and the price of the stock in London is 37.

The sale of the estancia La Constancia in the department of Paysandu which we announced the other day is about the greatest bargain on record It belonged to the Uruguay Mortgage Bank, who sold it for $59,500[m/n] gold. The estancia measures 3 square leagues; some of the best camp in the Banda Oriental, and the estancia house, puestos, galpones, etc., cost $62,000[m/n] gold. Thus the buyer got the land for nothing and the buildings for $2,500[m/n] gold less than their cost, Messrs. Sanguinetti Hermanos, merchants Montevideo buyers.

Montevidean items:—

"The amount of bonds of the new Consolidated Debt issued up to the 19th instant in exchange for certificates of the old foreign bonds was £1,152,687.17s. 2d. or $5,417,632 94.

"On Thursday the Liquidating Committee destroyed by fire, with the usual formalities, 58,153 minor notes, withdrawn from circulation, to the value of $34 225.

"Auctioneer J. Alvarez sold yesterday in the Land Agency a fraction of camp belonging to Doña C. G. de Zuñigo. in Rio Negro, composed of 2,420 hectares. 5 136.25 metres, or 3,280 squares 3,577 "varas" to Carrasale brothers for $23,500."

Don Carlos Lix Klett, Inspector General of the Argentine Committee of the Chicago Exhibition, will leave this week on a special mission to all the provinces of the Interior. The main object of Mr. Lix Klett's visit will be to push ahead preparations for the Chicago Exhibition.

At the meeting of merchants and consignees in the parlor of the Camara de Comercio in the Bolsa, the committee appointed to report on railways their tariffs and on markets stated that the manager of the Great Southern Railway would receive produce in the usual fashion next season, and that waggons would be supplied in time to the Constitucion and Central Markets. The reporting committee is composed of Messrs. Diego Ramsay, Haeslip, E. Bunge and A. Bonorino.

The appeal to the Governor of the province, begging a concentration of produce business at the Central Market, has already 150 signatures of leading merchants, consignees, and estancieros. The appeal will be handed to the Governor this week.

The maize market is very calm and prices are calm. Good wheat is in demand for local consumption: a superior parcel from Tres Arroyos was sold today at $10.40 per 100 kilos. The wool market is at a stand-still; a few lots were sold in deposit at falling price; the news from the European wool districts is unfavourable. Ox hides are sold with difficulty. Inferior and middling sheepskins are coming in freely and are in little demand.

The Board of the Central Produce Market has published a notice that it will not alter the present charges as long as the railway companies maintain their charges unaltered. This is a satisfactory assurance far farmers and consignees.

About six thousand ounces were sold at the second ring for to-morrow; the price opened at $53.40, fell to $53.30, and closed at $53.40, same price as in the morning. About one thousand sovereigns were sold; the price opened at $16.57, closing at $16.60, say 229.36% premium. The market closed with buyers at the closing rates. Nothing was done in Patriotic stock. A few Internal Bonds were sold at 67.70 for 31st and 68 40 for the end of September. Catalinas were very active and boomed; ten thousand were sold at rising prices, closing at 11.30 for to-morrow, for the 31st, and for the end of September. Municipal Consols closed at 60 A variety of bank shares was thrown on the market, viz; Spanish Bank at 106, Credito Real at 33, French Bank at 45, and Bolsa Bank at 45; shares of the South American Bank-Note Company changing hands at 50. Obligaciones rose to 1.50.

Surveyor F. Merelles has requested the Government to advance ten thousand dollars for measurement of land he must effect in the Gran Chaco.

General Donovan, Governor of the Chaco, has annexed to the Resistencia municipal jurisdiction all the land at Juarez Celman stretching as far as the river Parana.

In answer to an invitation to report on the dredging of the Naposta mud bank at Bahia Blanca by the great Southern Railway, Engineer Barabino, Inspector General of Hydraulic Works, states that the work done by the railway company is not of sufficient importance to warrant the expense of sending of personnel to seeif the soundings are correct. Mr. Barabino calls attention to the fact that the company have not carried out their original plans, the main feature of which was a canal of 1,350 metres length and 100 weidth; the canal dredged, according to the company's own plans, is only 450 metres long and 75 wide. We think that the Engineering Department may rest satisfied with the assurance that all work done by the Great Southern Railway Company is invariably well done.

The Intendente of San Fernando has laid a formal protest before the Minister of the Interior against the Buenos Ayres Rosario Railway Company. It appears that the company have begged permission of the National Government to carry out some works at the canal running through San Fernando. The Intendente urges that the jurisdiction of the local municipality is not only ignored, but the railway company is before the Supreme Federal Court in a question still pending with the municipality.

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.
According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.
Directions for use
One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.
